Republican politicians are jugglers their work. They have been trying to make it appears that the assessment of railroad projecty in Kansas is much higher than it is in Missouri. This is, of course, for the purpose of creating the impression that the Missouri State Board of Equalization discriminates in favor of railroads. To do this they give the smount of tax per mile which the railroads are required to pay in each State, and as the State rate of taxton in Missouri on all property, corporate, real and personal, is only
